

Estimate of Costs 2008-2009

To assist you in determining an estimated budget for attending Oklahoma State University the following information represents the average living expenses for a single international student at the university. Please note that the estimates below are based on current rates and are subject to change without prior notice. If you are admitted and receive an I-20 or a DS-2019, the estimated budget on that document may be somewhat higher than the estimates below.
